

We cordially invite to

3 Guest Lectures on The Role of Forests in Climate Change Research and Policy

All lectures will take place in lecture hall F01 in the Faculty of Forest Science and Forest Ecology, Büsgenweg 1, Göttingen

- 1 Tuesday, 1. November 2011: 12:30-14:00h
Carbon Forestry: implementation and financing Dr. Timm Tennigkeit, Unique Forestry Consultants, Freiburg
Dr Tennigkeit is a freelance consultant with comprehensive experience in the implementation of carbon forestry projects in Africa and Asia and had been working formerly for the ICRAF office in China for 5 years.
- 2 Tuesday, 8. November 2011: 14c.t - 16h
The evolution of REDD+ and what is at stake in Durban
Mr. Fabian Schmidt, GIZ Eschborn
Mr. Schmidt is member of the GIZ team on "Environment and Climate", has worked for the GIZ REDD Program in Indonesia, for CIFOR, the World Bank and Forest Finance Ltd.
- 3 Tuesday, 22. November 2011: 14c.t – 16h
Forests and land use in the tropics:
challenges in their role in climate change mitigation and adaptation
Prof. Dr. Markku Kanninen, University of Helsinki, Finland
Prof. Kanninen is a professor of Tropical Silviculture. He was formerly scientific director at CATIE, Costa Rica, and at CIFOR, Indonesia. He is a member of the UNFCCC Adaptation Fund Board.

